Dear Dr Minh Alexander

Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Request - 171210003

Thank you for your request dated 10 December 2017 in which asked for the following information from the Ministry of Justice (MoJ):

Please provide, for 2015/16 and 2016/17, a gender and ethnicity breakdown of criminal cases in the Court of Appeal, in terms of

- number of applications and
- number of successful appeals

Please provide copies of any Equality reviews or analyses conducted on the work of the Court of Appeal.

Your request has been handled under the FOIA.

I can confirm the MoJ holds the information you have requested. However, to provide as the request currently stands would exceed the cost limit set out in the FOIA.

Section 12(1) of the FOIA means public authorities are not obliged to comply with a request for information if it estimates the cost of complying would exceed the appropriate limit. The appropriate limit for central government is set at £600. This represents the estimated cost of one person spending 3.5 working days determining whether the department holds the information, and locating, retrieving and extracting the information.

Where section 12 applies to one part of a request we refuse all of the request under the cost limit as advised by the Information Commissioner's Office.

The court's electronic case management system does not hold all the information requested. To obtain accurate information would require manually checking all of the court records in the scope of the request to identify the required data. We believe that the cost of locating, retrieving and extracting the data would exceed the appropriate limit. Consequently, we are not obliged to comply with your request.

Although we cannot answer your request at the moment, we may be able to answer a refined request within the cost limit. You may wish to consider, for example, reducing the time period or the scope of your request. Please be aware that we cannot guarantee at this stage that a refined request will fall within the FOIA cost limit, or that other exemptions will not apply. Information held in court records is one such exemption under section 32 of the FOIA.
