

The Whistleblowing APPG's inadequate provision for protection of whistleblowers

The APPG Bill states:

“(2) A relevant person must not subject, or cause or permit others to subject, a person to detriment as a consequence of that person —

- (a) being or being perceived to be a whistleblower; or
- (b) being or being perceived to be a person associated with a whistleblower or with a person perceived as a whistleblower;
- (c) making an allegation (whether or not express) that a person has contravened this Act
- (d) bringing proceedings or giving evidence or information in connection with this Act;
- (e) doing any other thing for the purposes of or in connection with this Act
- (f) being a person facilitating the making by another of a protected disclosure
