WhistleblowersUK is a 'not for profit' organisation. This means that we do not have shareholders and the company is obliged by law to invest all surplus income back into the company in the furtherance of its objectives. We were set up to:

1. transform the way that everyone thinks about whistleblowing and demonstrate the importance of whistleblowers in a transparent society.
2. provide practical, accessible, and affordable assistance to whistleblowers.
3. campaign for legislative reform, to provide enhanced protection and fairness for whistleblowers and society.
4. help organisations understand, recognise and value the importance of embracing whistleblowers' concerns and develop professional standards to engage with whistleblowers.
