

<https://www.mylondon.news/news/east-london-news/patient-29-dies-one-week-33545331>

Patient, 29, dies one week after attack at Mile End mental health facility

A 27-year-old man has been charged in connection

-
-

Rebecca McCulloch Trainee Multimedia Reporter

14:46, 06 Mar 2026

View Image

Emergency crews were called to the East London centre on February 28 (Image: Mario Guti/Getty Images)

A murder investigation has been launched after a patient was assaulted at a mental health facility in East London. Abdul Said was seriously injured at the centre on Mile End's Bancroft Road shortly before 10.10pm on Saturday, February 28.

The 29-year-old was treated at the scene by paramedics and rushed to hospital in life-threatening condition. He was pronounced dead yesterday (March 5), the Metropolitan Police said in a statement this afternoon.

Yunus Uddin, also a patient, was charged with attempted murder on Monday, March 2. The 27-year-old appear at Thames Magistrates' Court on Tuesday, where he was remanded in custody.

Mr Said's family continue to be supported by specialist officers at the Metropolitan Police.